Brange Is Movin' On Up, To The West Side

Filed under: Brad Pitt > Angelina Jolie

Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie may be looking to become bicostal, with a little experiment in real estate buying in Manhattan.

The power couple are looking at the Apthorp building in NYC, "which is a century-old upper West Side landmark that's undergoing a condo conversion." Sources are saying that the Jolie-Pitt clan are ready to throw down at least $25 million on three-units within the building.

Damn!!!

Other celebrities, like Alec Baldwin and Sarah Jessica Parker have also inquired into the New York property, while others, like Cyndi Lauper, have already put in their offers.

It'll be a celebrity flop-house!

Oh, and how much would we love to see Angie and SJPeePee living their own version of Sex And The City!!!
